

We know that people who have experienced sexual harm can feel this way every day.

You can talk to your GP and they will discuss with you what support is available and let you choose what you want to do next.

I feel like I am floating through day to day

I know I drink more than I should

I feel really low..... depressed

You are not alone

We listen. We believe. We support

01226 320140

